

MONDAY ADMIN 338
4:00 pm

APRIL 11

.....
LECTURE

Two Difficult Points in Being and Event:
From a Remark of Desanti about Ontology to a Remark of Lyotard about the Double Signification of “Event”

ALAIN

BADIOU · PHILOSOPHY · POLITICS

Download readings at www.ThinkingWithShakespeare.org

SPONSORED BY
The UC Humanities Research Institute
Department of Spanish and Portuguese
Department of French and Italian
Center for Global Peace and Conflict Studies
The Humanities Center
The Working Group in Law, Society and Culture

ALAIN BADIOU
is the author of several major works of philosophy, including Theory of the Subject (1982), Being and Event (1988; English translation forthcoming summer 2005), and Logics of Worlds (forthcoming).
He has also written numerous books and essays on topics such as ethics, mathematics, St. Paul, Beckett, and love. He is also the author of several novels and plays.

UC IRVINE

TUESDAY ADMIN 338
4:00 pm

APRIL 12

.....
LECTURE

Democratic Materialism
and Materialist Dialectic:
The Framework of Philosophy
Today